INDEX 1976 Nos 68-71

Articles

Basic statistics of fatigue crack growth L P Pook 71.3

Current trends in the design and manufacture of wooden cases J D Harvey 68.11

Cycle counting and fatigue damage P Watson and B J Dabell 70.3

Determination of material behaviour in tensile tests using hydraulic testing machines Tibor Haas 70.11

Dynamic Aspects of Nuclear Power W Tustin 68.35 69.30

Fatigue crack growth in offshore structures W D Dover 68.3

Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 A P Mackenzie 68.15

High frequency performance of viscoelastic packaging materials B H Venning 69.26

Impact testing resilient materials D E Newland and G C McCreesh 71.11

Measurement and application of mechanical impedance data D J Ewins 68.23 69.7

A new concept in footborne contamination control D P Stanley 71.17

A systems approach to condition monitoring J F Walker 69.3

A trade union view on health and safety at work J P Hamilton 69.22

Vibration on the platforms of various utility transport vehicles and on containers during loading and unloading in port W Hoppe and J Gerok 71.24

Viscoelastic materials for damping applications E T Clothier 70.24

What is BS 9000? D G Spickernell 70.19

Authors

Clothier E T Viscoelastic materials for damping applications 70.24

Dabell B J (and P Watson) Cycle counting and fatigue damage 70.3
